Announcement

Saltash Town Council awards £59,069 to support young people in Saltash

Saltash Town Council recognises the increased need for detached professional youth work in Saltash. Due to this demand the Town Council continue their commitment to the youth of the town and the organisations that provide vital services to them.

Following a successful tendering process Livewire and The Core have each been awarded £29,534.50 for the financial year 2024-25.

From the left Councillor Julia Peggs, Charlotte Carpenter from The Core, Councillor Rachel Bullock, Councillor Matt Griffiths and Andy Rance from Livewire.

The services from The Core and The Livewire Youth Project are to include 30 in total detached youth work sessions (detached youth work to include actively seeking to identify and provide support to young people away from formal settings who are not engaging with youth services) and the participation of these organisations in the Saltash Team for Youth.

The funding will be released quarterly and both organisations will send reports to the Town Council Policy and Finance Committee on each of these occasions. These reports will include detailed information concerning expenditure and outcomes in connection with the essential work they are delivering to the young people of Saltash.

The Chairman of Saltash Town Council, Councillor Julia Peggs said “I have seen the amazing work that both organisations deliver in the town and thank them for the service they provide. I am delighted that the Town Council can continue to support them and the young people in Saltash”.

Charlotte Carpenter, Youth Work Coordinator/Centre Manager said “The Core would like to say a big thank you for the generous donation from Saltash Town Council, which is enabling us to continue to offer young people with a safe space to meet, take part in activities and access professional youth workers”.

Andy Rance, Youth Work Coordinator for the Livewire Youth Music Project said “Livewire is delighted and extremely grateful for the funding from Saltash Town Council to support our work with local young people”.
