

Residents encouraged to give their views on burial and cremation in England and Wales

The Law Commission of England Wales is currently holding a public consultation on burial and cremation law. The consultation runs until 9th January 2025 and seeks input from the public and stakeholders on the following topics

- Regulation of burial ground
- Reuse of old graves
- Cremation law
- Rights of the Commonwealth War Graves Commission
- Closed and disused burial grounds
- Exhumation

All responses will be analysed and a report published with recommendations for law reforms at the end of 2025.
