

Saltash Town Council Begins Employee Recognition Scheme

Saltash Town Council can confirm that it has begun an employee recognition scheme in its workplace. The scheme is designed to recognise exceptional effort by its employees in the workplace.

The scheme will look to recognise achievement across all departments and celebrate the best of what Saltash Town Council is achieving every day.

As a Town Council, it is vital that we recognise what our amazing staff contribute to our community, especially by going above and beyond.

Julia Peggs, Mayor of Saltash said: 'This scheme is a welcome addition to the Town Council and celebrates what our brilliant staff achieve on an everyday basis.'
